STATE NEWS.

Wolfe county has an oil boom. Saturday May 2, was Derby Day at the Louisville Jockey Club grounds. The Kentucky State Medical Society will meet next day at Lexington. Nelson Whitt, of Morgan county, died just after drinking twelve bottles of "Hot Drops" and other extracts. At Louisville, Will McCrone, a ten-year-old boy, tried to board a circus train, and fell and broke his neck. Jesse James, aged seventeen, was instantly killed by falling from a wooden practice horse at Louisville. The lady's neck was broken. Wm. Mackey, a well-known farmer of Mason county, fell dead while cutting wood, with his brother, with a cross-cut saw. At Mayville Charles Word, aged 12 years, son of N. S. Wood, shot and dangerously wounded his nine-year-old brother while playing with a pistol. James Gilliam died in Greenup county last week aged 88 years. He was twice married and was the father of twenty-two children, twenty-one of whom were at his death-bed, the other being dead.

The Knox county grand jury has begun a sweeping investigation of the alleged sale of arson by trustees to teachers. Warrants of arrest have been issued for several teachers who failed to respond when summoned to appear before the jury.

Dr. George Maupin, of Clay county, attempted to place an anesthetic on a little girl and cut a blood vessel from which she bled to death. He was arrested and held over in $500 bond to Circuit Court on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

A strange case in the Morgan Circuit Court, in session at West Liberty, was that against Ed Wilson, for selling whisky. It developed that Wilson had recently died of fever, also that his lawyer, A. C. Nichol, and his bondsman, A. K. Allen had died. The case was dismissed.

The largest walnut log ever taken out of the Eastern Kentucky mountain forests has just been taken from Cross Fork of Kentucky river overland across the mountains to Jackson, Breathitt county. The log was exactly six feet in diameter and sixteen feet long, and it required eight large yokes of oxen to "make" it over the mountains. It sold for $1,600.

During a difficulty on the streets at Mt. Sterling, Chas. Robinson shot Crumpton in the leg causing a serious wound. Robinson first engaged in trouble with his father-in-law, Andy James, and when James left he turned on Crumpton and shot at him five times. Robinson killed a man named Beatty in Menifee county about three years ago and was pardoned by the Governor. This is the second shooting affray Robinson has engaged in since being pardoned.

At Harrodsburg Bertha Gabbard had sued Thomas Gabbard for a divorce. They were married in July, 1899. A dispatch says: "He stole the amount of money necessary to get married on, and then, after he had secured the money they were married he was arrested for stealing the money and also on the charge of horse stealing, and was tried and convicted in the Circuit Court and sent to the penitentiary. His wife now sues him for divorce, alleging that he has been convicted of a felony."

Bert Rogers obtained a marriage license at Stanton, Powell county, to marry Miss Shide Hutton, fifteen years old. Rogers, in company with a party of friends, proceeded to the home of the young woman and attempted an elopement. B. F. Hutton, the girl's father, with his son, hearing some shots, warned them to come no nearer. The warning was unheeded, and fire was opened by both sides. Rogers, William Snowden, B. H. Hutton and H. K. Watson were wounded. Hutton and his son were uninjured.

Before any voter casts his vote for any candidate in the State primary, he should ask:
Is he honest?
Is he capable?
Is he a straight democrat?
Honesty first—everywhere, at all times and above all things; capability second, for incapability is but the byproduct of incapacity; a straight democrat record—the highest endorsement for both honesty and capability.—Glasgow Times.

THE STATE CANDIDATES.

The News has been requested to print a full list of the candidates for State offices to be voted for at the primary election on the 9th day of May. The following is the complete list:
For governor—J. C. W. Beckham.
For Lieutenant-governor—W. P. Thomas, Abram Beswick.
For Attorney general—N. B. Hays, Ira Julian, J. Willard Mitchell, Charles Carroll.
For Auditor—S. W. Hager, Jas. B. Chesnut.

For Treasurer—H. M. Bosworth, J. T. Griffith, G. W. Richardson.
For Secretary of State—H. V. McChesney.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction—E. J. Watkins, Thos. N. Arnold, C. E. Sugg, Ben Watt, J. H. Fuqua.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—T. T. Hedger, Hubert Vreeland, J. M. Frasse.
For Clerk of Court of Appeals—Elliott Greene, J. Morgan Chiles.

RUSSELL SPRINGS.

Farmers have commenced to farm. The state business is booming again. Our merchants are receiving the largest stock of spring goods ever put in here and are having a good trade. The carpenters and painters are beginning to get in their work adding much to the beauty of the town.
Prof. Huffaker's normal is progressing nicely with a regular attendance, and good work being done.
T. L. Humble, of Moss, Tenn., was here looking after business this week. He reports business in his section of country improving.

The old folks singing at the new church south of town last Sunday was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.
The Russell Springs Fair will be held this year August 11, 12, 13 and 14. The track and grounds will be put in excellent shape with a view to making the fair this year more enjoyable than ever before.

The band boys have recently purchased several new instruments, a large amount of the latest music, have engaged an instructor and will meet to practice four times a week.
D. Wilson and Son are preparing to erect an addition to their store to accommodate their rapidly increasing trade. The above named firm is what we term prosperity makers.

No speaker who has been here in years made more friends than did Mr. N. B. Hays, of Bell county. He is an exceedingly polished talker and his effort was fruitful of logic and common sense. He gave many reasons why the 11th district should be represented on the Democratic State ticket, dwell a short while on the tariff question and paid his respects in a most gentlemanly way to his opponents. The following short history of this good democrat and splendid gentleman appears in the London Democrat: "N. B. Hays, candidate for attorney general, was a democratic elector in 1892, an assistant auditor of the State in 1896, and an elector for the State in 1900, and in each instance canvassed a large part of the State at his own expense. He is well known all over the State and is going to be Kentucky's next attorney general."—Stanford Journal.

Dave Hill has at least one advantage over any other presidential aspirant. He is used to not getting it.

GENERAL NEWS.

Kansas City has an establishment that can nothing but horse meat. China has appropriated $400,000 for her exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition.

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a law which prevents non-residents from hunting or fishing in that State. Mr. J. D. Lehmer, a Cincinnati capitalist, aged 85 years, was found dead on the ground in the rear of his home, where he had evidently fallen from a second story window. His estate is estimated at $5,000,000.

The syndicate which created the United States Steel Corporation has been dissolved with a profit of $50,000,000, or 200 per cent. They are entitled to participate in the syndicate to retire the preferred stock.

Twenty-one of the best men in this country were sent from San Francisco to engage in a laying contest with Australian men, which will continue for one year. Their expenses were paid by the Australian government, which will buy the best six at $55 apiece. The others will be sold there at public auction.

The trustees of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, in Alabama, have received from Andrew Carnegie an endowment of $500,000 in United States Steel corporation bonds. Out of this, suitable provision is to be made for the wants of Booker Washington and family during life.

China has sent to the Russian Government a formal refusal to grant Russia's demands for the evacuation of Manchuria. Minister Congor has lodged a strong protest with China on behalf of the United States and Japan has also expressed her displeasure at the Russian demands. The Russian Government has issued a statement denying or minimizing the reported demands.

Mr. W. J. Murphy, who has been general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific railroad, will become vice-president of the same and Mr. W. A. Garrett, who until recently was general superintendent of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad will succeed Mr. Murphy as manager of the first named system.

At Santa Fe, Ill., a mob of white farmers lynched an unknown negro youth for attempting to assault a ten year old white girl. After hanging their victim the farmers made a general onslaught on a colony of negro bridge builders who were living in tents. The tents were burned and the negroes were driven to the woods after several of them had been wounded by a fusillade of shots.

A Washington dispatch says few people will ever again gaze on the original copy of the Declaration of Independence. On account of its faded condition a committee of experts which examined it has directed that it be sealed in an air and light-tight case and forever removed from the public gaze. Only in this way can the document be preserved, as its exposure to light and air has so faded it it is barely legible.

AGE LIMITATION.

There is a growing sentiment which precludes old age from enjoying the benefits of choice positions in the business world. Youth is everywhere preferred. In this respect Electric Bitters is different. It benefits old and young alike. Rev. C. J. Hudson of Ashbury, B. I. writes: "I want every body to know that Electric Bitters is, it cured me of jaundice and liver trouble from which I had suffered for years. It's a great tonic and nerve and ousure Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Only 50c and guaranteed by all druggists."

When you hear a republican blowing about the amount paid Capt. Calhoun for collecting Kentucky's war claims, just remind him of the fact that Republican States in the North paid their agents from 20 to 25 per cent, for the same service, and Capt. Calhoun received less than five and one-half per cent, for accomplishing the same work. It is impossible to get ahead of the republicans when it comes to "grafting."—Winchester Democrat.

Maine refused to make any appropriation for the St. Louis exposition. Massachusetts, on the other hand, voted an appropriation of $100,000. And that is about the relative importance of the two states.

AN ENDORSEMENT.

Georgetown, Ky., May 11, 1903.
Hon. W. S. Fryer.
Satisfied it would be to the interest of the public, and suitable reward for long and exceptionally efficient and faithful services to give Bob Greene the Democratic nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, I hope he will get it.

You and I, having for a long time served together on the Appellate Bench, know that he has, though in name merely deputy and getting paid only as such, been for the last twelve or fifteen years, in fact the chief clerk and indispensable to the Court, judges and lawyers. For if the judges wished to know the nature and style of a particular case or line of cases previously decided as is frequently necessary, or a lawyer to ascertain anything relating to the status or steps taken in pending cases Bob Greene alone was applied to and he could and would courteously and quickly tell them.

The office is too important to be given to a mere politician, without experience.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH H. LEWIS.

'T WAS EVER THUS.

The writer of the following paragraph has evidently been up against the real thing. At any rate he speaks correctly. "Men are just like hogs, however distasteful this may sound to the hogs. When a hog gets an ear or, every hog will trot along behind him, equal and white and beg for a bite, but just let the front leg get his head fast in a crack, and every one will jump on him and tear him to pieces. Just so with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has plenty of money he can't keep friends off with a club. But the minute his wealth is gone, he is not only snubbed by his former friends, but they at once begin to bite him all the same. When a man starts up grade the world falls behind and pushes, but when he starts down grade the world steps to one side and greases the track."

AN EAT PROGRAM.

Now that the Dedication Ceremonies of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition (the World's Fair) are so close at hand, the public is commencing to wonder what St. Louis has to offer in the way of entertainment to out-of-town visitors.

The Henderson Route (which is The World's Fair List) has gotten out a very neat booklet, vest-pocket size, which contains the complete official program of these ceremonies.

It is a modern piece of work in every respect, printed in green and red with gray antique cover and high grade enameled book inside.

Copies will be gladly furnished on application.

Chauncey Dewey is sixty-nine years old and weighs 200 pounds. Judging from his talk we should have said he was much younger than that and not so heavy.

TENSION.

There was a big sensation in Louisville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma but your 'New Discovery' gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free."

The deed to the land on which the Lindsey-Wilson Training School will be located has been made and the purchase price paid. The plans for the building have been adopted, bids are being received and the contract will be let soon. The contract price of the building will have to be paid, in installments, within the next six months, and unless people who have subscribed pay up their subscriptions at once we will have to borrow money and pledge their lands to secure same. If you are loyal to the cause pay up your subscription at once and don't wait for the settlements to become due. Pay at least one-half of it now. By order of the Executive Committee, N. M. THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Co.

(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. H. HARRIS, Editor.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the best interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second class matter.

WED. MAY 6, 1903.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce that Henry M. Bosworth, of Fayette county, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, May 5, 1903.

Vote for Hays.

Vote for Ben Watt.

Caleb Powers' trial will be called at Georgetown this week.

Be sure and vote for Hays. He lives in the Eleventh district.

Mr. Morris B. Belknap, of Louisville, is a probable Republican candidate for Governor.

When you go to the polls next Saturday remember and vote for Henry M. Bosworth for Treasurer.

In withdrawing from the gubernatorial contest, Hon. John K. Hendricks issued a card, stating he would support the ticket selected on the 9th of May.

The estimable wife of Mr. Mott Ayers, a well-known newspaper man and a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, died at Fulton, Ky., Sunday.

The farming element, especially, should vote for Hubert Vreeland for Commissioner of Agriculture. He has been an assistant in the office for a number of years, and is thoroughly acquainted with the business.

Gov. Beckham has made one of the best Governors this State has ever had and there are no reasons why he should not receive the entire support of the party. Its only one more step to an overwhelming majority and a full four years reign at Frankfort.

Next Saturday will be the State primary. The candidates selected on that day will be elected in November. Every Democrat has a right to say at the primary who his choice is and every Democrat should exercise that privilege.

We trust that the Democrats of this county will give Mr. Hager a solid vote for Auditor. He is a good man thoroughly qualified, a splendid campaigner and nominated and elected without an official of the highest type. Vote for him and you will not regret it.

Howard killed Goebel was the opinion of every man on the jury, but Mr. Burke being opposed to capital punishment, the eleven men who favored the death penalty finally agreed with him to a life imprisonment verdict.

There is no doubt but there is an abundance of reformers going on at Washington. The investigation now going on in the Post office Department is sufficient evidence that there is corruption in other Departments. The Democrats in Congress are going to make an effort to run down the thieves.

The Republican Committee for 29th Judicial district met this p.m. last Monday and called a primary election to be held Saturday, August 1, 1903. The district is composed of Adair, Casey, Cumberland, Metcalfe, Russell and Monroe counties. The primary is to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge and a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney.

For the third time Jim Howard has been tried for murdering Gov. Goebel. He was convicted at each. First trial he was given the death penalty, and the two last life sentences. At the trial which ended last Thursday eleven of the jurors were in favor of hanging and one stood for penitentiary for life. In order to make a verdict the eleven who favored hanging were the one who stood for a life sentence. The case will be appealed.

The dedication exercises for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at Louisville, Thursday, May 5, 1903. Mr. Garret stopped in Marshall to visit his wife's mother and family, while my father and myself visited his brother and son at Fulton. It was a stop over and enjoyed by all and gave us an opportunity to see some of the fine lands of Central Missouri. Meeting at Mexico, Mo., we went to St. Louis, over the Vandalia, where a tremendous crowd had gathered to witness the dedication of the World's Fair buildings and to meet Teddy and Grover. We did not arrive there in time to see the parade, and not having any desire to take tea with the distinguished visitors to that city, we boarded a Louisville and Henderson train which brought us back to the Old Commonwealth, feeling glad that we were safe in a land where the meadow grasses grow and pure, fresh, sparkling waters flow.

A recapitulation.—In my judgment Kansas is one of the neatest and most attractive cities for a home in the West. Oklahoma City, the most metropolitan and Lion-like aggressive and progressive municipality in all that fertile region, and Fort Worth pulling a strong second. The broad fertile prairie of Texas, hemmed in by the horizon only in every direction are beautiful, inviting and attractive. The rich bottoms and low lands of the Indian Territory skirted by stripes of stubby timber mark it as a country of great possibilities. The fertile and varied lands of Oklahoma hold within them productive powers unsurpassed by any other region.

Kansas to the land where all other States in the universe to produce more wheat or to out measure in other agricultural products, but in my judgment Central Missouri has more of the good and less of the disagreeable in climate, resources and productive powers than any other State west of the Mississippi. Its streams are clear and sparkling, its prairies broad and fertile and climate a twin brother to our own beloved Kentucky. It is there the earth is wrapped in a luxuriant coat of blue-grass, where fine stock of every description has crowded on the scrub. It is second only to one spot on earth—Kentucky. This I can prove by the County Attorney of Adair.

Porter Price and W. H. Flowers delivered to Dick Tandy, last Monday fifty odd fat hogs at 6 and 6 cents.

It begins to look like farming weather now and the farmers are making use of it.

Wheat looks well and the prospects are that there will be an average crop.

Rev. A. L. Melt filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday. He preached at Morris School-house in the afternoon and at the home of A. J. Mank in the evening. Bro. Melt is an energetic pastor and knows his business when he gets in the pulpit.

Mr. Gwin Moss, of Greensburg, was here last week looking after merchantable timber.

Messrs. Robt. Dohoney, Dan Wright, E. B. Dohoney and Mrs. Ellen Price are on the sick list.

Mr. W. R. Dohoney bought a fancy saddle mare from Alec Estes for $75.

O. R. P. bought a fine jersey cow and calf from Geo. Kettner for $25.

Childrens Day service will be held at Pleasant Ridge the third Sunday in May.

Geo. Kettner is contemplating making a trip to the Indian Territory about the 20th of May.

Miss Mollie Murrell was in Columbia shopping one day last week.

Miss Bertha Breeding visited the family of S. H. Murrell last week.

Miss Mary Hadley, of Russell Springs is visiting relatives at this place.

Geo. Austin, of Morris Manotona, Canada, is visiting the family of Howard and Murrell.

Miss Hattie Bubarne, of Escalante, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. S. McKinley is very sick with grippe.

A. O. Young bought of L. Dehart 8 hogs for $50.

W. A. McKinley and wife visited the former parents last week.

Porter Murrell and wife visited the family of W. G. McKinley Sunday.

Rev. T. F. Barber preaches every fourth Sunday in the morning and Concord to the evening.

Mrs. Sarah Barger, of Eato, who has been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks, returned home Sunday.

Alec Murrell went to Montpellier on business a few days ago.

From Guthrie we went to Guthrie, the Capital of the Territory and the same age as Oklahoma City. It is a beautiful town of eighteen or twenty thousand and making rapid strides for commercial supremacy. In Guthrie, as in all other towns in which we stopped, we shook hands with the boys from Kentucky. We met Marvin Young from Cumberland county, who holds a good position behind a counter and enjoys the good will of a large circle of western friends. It is Guthrie that holds two of Adair counties young men, Bob and John Grison. They are in the lively business, up and abreast of the times, and no other firm or business men in the city enjoys better standing or mixes with a larger circle of friends. They are p. r. s. p. e. r. s. o. n. s. and truly they deserve it.

From Guthrie we headed north and east passing through Topeka,

Wichita, Kansas City and into Missouri, where three days were spent with relatives and friends. Mr. Garret stopped in Marshall to visit his wife's mother and family, while my father and myself visited his brother and son at Fulton. It was a stop over and enjoyed by all and gave us an opportunity to see some of the fine lands of Central Missouri. Meeting at Mexico, Mo., we went to St. Louis, over the Vandalia, where a tremendous crowd had gathered to witness the dedication of the World's Fair buildings and to meet Teddy and Grover. Alec Murrell went to Montpellier on business a few days ago.

From Guthrie we headed north and east passing through Topeka,

Wichita, Kansas City and into Missouri, where three days were spent with relatives and friends. Mr. Garret stopped in Marshall to visit his wife's mother and family, while my father and myself visited his brother and son at Fulton. It was a stop over and enjoyed by all and gave us an opportunity to see some of the fine lands of Central Missouri. Meeting at Mexico, Mo., we went to St. Louis, over the Vandalia, where a tremendous crowd had gathered to witness the dedication of the World's Fair buildings and to meet Teddy and Grover. We did not arrive there in time to see the parade, and not having any desire to take tea with the distinguished visitors to that city, we boarded a Louisville and Henderson train which brought us back to the Old Commonwealth, feeling glad that we were safe in a land where the meadow grasses grow and pure, fresh, sparkling waters flow.

A recapitulation.—In my judgment Kansas is one of the neatest and most attractive cities for a home in the West. Oklahoma City, the most metropolitan and Lion-like aggressive and progressive municipality in all that fertile region, and Fort Worth pulling a strong second. The broad fertile prairie of Texas, hemmed in by the horizon only in every direction are beautiful, inviting and attractive. The rich bottoms and low lands of the Indian Territory skirted by stripes of stubby timber mark it as a country of great possibilities. The fertile and varied lands of Oklahoma hold within them productive powers unsurpassed by any other region.

DIED.

Mr. Chas. B. Caldwell, who was about forty years old, died at the residence of his father, Mr. Jerry Caldwell, last Saturday afternoon, a victim of consumption. The deceased was born and reared in Adair county, and was a man for whom every body had the utmost respect. A few years ago he went west with his family, returning two months ago, broken in health. He received the best attention during his illness and died surrounded by many relatives and friends. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed from the neighborhood where he was so well and favorably known. He leaves a wife and several children and to them the sympathy of the community is extended.

The night hawk made its last Saturday night and early Sunday morning before by bringing their pistols, disturbing many residents of the town. Such conduct is disgraceful to the perpetrators and brings sorrow to parents and the condemnation of all good citizens. There is a strong suspicion as to who or what the parties were. It is known that a certain young man, who is in the habit of devoting Saturday night to drunkenness, received a call or two of whiskey; that he divided it with some of his chums and that there was a general drunk. This character of conduct may go on for awhile, but there is a day of reckoning coming. Some night when they are sleeping peacefully, their parents and neighbors, the strong arm of the law will reach out, followed by a trial and fine that will bring out the shame that is hidden in the hearts of these society-only drunkards to the disgrace of their names, shunned upon all occasions, and who is to blame? They who heeded not the admonition of those closest to them. God pity the man or boy that looks upon the wine when it is red, that gives its color in the cup for at last it is bitter and a serpent and strength like an aspid.

I understand a report is being circulated in the eastern part of this county that Walker Bryant attempted to pass a counterfeit bill at this bank's short time since. This report is absolutely false. Mr. Bryant presented a bill to me to pass on to my whether it was good, and when it was made known to him that the bill was counterfeit he turned it forward to the proper authorities. That report might be taken to protect the public and run down the party who might be circulating the bill. I make this statement for the benefit of those who are not acquainted with Mr. Bryant. His high character needs no defense and he is known to be a man of honor. Assistant Cashier Bank of Columbia.

Without solicitation I take pleasure in testifying to the good character of Mr. Bryant. He is a man of integrity, strictly honest and upright in all his dealings. No attempt to besmirch his good name and character will harm him in the bounds of his acquaintance. He is a business man succeeding only by energy and honest dealing.

C. S. HARRIS.

There is more interest throughout the country in building electric roads than ever before known, and Kentucky is coming in for her share. Our neighboring counties are in the push as well as seen from the following, sent out from Glasgow: K. J. Morris and B. E. Tyler, in company with an engineering corps, to-day began surveying the routes from Glasgow to Burkesville, Glasgow to Horse Cave and Edmonson to Tompkinsville, crossing the main line at Summer Shade for the electric line from Glasgow to Burkesville and through these towns. The right of way has already been secured by the Glasgow, Burkesville & Cumberland Valley Traction Company. The electric line will connect with the Louisville & Nashville at Glasgow and at Horse Cave and will open up this part of the rich Cumberland Valley. The construction of the road will begin as soon as the survey is finished and will be rapidly pushed.

Mr. A. Blair, who lives in the White Oak country, tells the following story which he says took place last night. He was out for a walk and saw a light in the distance. He went to see what it was and found a fire. He went to see what it was and found a fire. He went to see what it was and found a fire.

Mr. J. W. Hurt is having his residence near Columbia, lately painted, which adds greatly to its appearance. J. T. Barber, Jr., and Fred McLean are doing the work.

N. B. Hays is a candidate for Attorney General. Vote for him.

The stock sale which is to be held in Columbia on Monday May 18, 1903, is a new venture for this locality, but already there are indications that the enterprise will be a success. The gentlemen who comprise the company understand their business, and there is no doubt that a great many horses will be entered. Buyers from a distance will be here, and bidding throughout the day promises to be lively. Columbia already has the reputation of being one of the best stock markets in the State, and this venture will increase her popularity. We expect to see a large crowd, many people from adjoining counties here on that day.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Marcum Hotel which appears in another column. Mr. Marcum has one of the best hotel buildings in Southern Kentucky. It is a brick building of 35 well ventilated rooms newly furnished and by far the best building of the kind in this part of the State. The tables are furnished with the best the market affords and prepared in the most appetizing manner. Mr. Marcum, assisted in the management by his wife and daughter, is conducting his business in a highly pleasing manner both to the people of this section and the commercial men who make this town. No better hotel in all the country. Good fare and courteous treatment. Read the "ad."

Up to date there has been no real warm weather. There has been but little thawing for corn and the few who have planted say they would rather have the seed out than in the ground. We are all prone to make complaints and wishes. It is not exceedingly hard, much grumbling or the dry weather will be heard from the next corn crop is made.

We have in this office a walnut table purchased from the Columbia Furniture Company, which is perfect in workmanship and finish. It was put up by Mr. J. Patterson, who is a first-class mechanic. The piece of furniture is not only a credit to the builder, but speaks through admirers, words of praise for the establishment that sold it.

As we have stated at numerous times before, we cannot insert items in the free column for anyone but subscribers to the News. It is for their sole benefit. Nor can we insert in that column free anything but advertisements of stock or other products raised on the farm. We cannot insert, except at advertising rates, advertisements of wagons, and huggies or other such articles.

The feed tobacco market in Louisville was an unsatisfactory one here, especially on Burley. Several heads brought $11.00 and $14.00. The dark market was better. On Wednesday one firm sold 300 lbs. of the best price being $8.20. The cattle market was fair. Thousands of hogs were sold at less than 7 cents.

The oil excitement at Salt Lake Bend, Cumberland county, continues. The Standard Oil Company has recently landed its complete rig at that place. If you will notice the Standard and oil company never develops, but as soon as oil is found it runs in and closes down on smaller operators.

The Russell Springs Band has ordered several new instruments, employed an instructor, and are well supplied with new music. In order to render first-class selections during the coming Fair at that place they will practice four times a week from now until the opening.

The county judge has offered a reward of $50 for the arrest and delivery of the negro who killed Jo Henry Smith. It is claimed by some parties that the darky is still in the neighborhood.

Last Monday was county court. A large crowd in town and business fairly good. A number of horses and mules changed hands, and the Master Court mistoner sold several trunks of land.

Mr. S. F. High School will close the present session the latter part of this month. The normal department is rapidly filling up with scholars who are preparing to teach the common schools.

Mr. J. W. Hurt is having his residence near Columbia, lately painted, which adds greatly to its appearance. J. T. Barber, Jr., and Fred McLean are doing the work.

N. B. Hays is a candidate for Attorney General. Vote for him.

Sam Lewis has a car-load of salt, lime and cement for sale.

Remember that N. B. Hays lives in the Eleventh district. Vote for him.

FOR SALE—A Jersey thoroughbred bull calf. J. M. RUSSELL.

For Sale—A good combined saddle and buggy horse. Mrs. E. A. PILE.

Nearly every family in town made preparation to begin gardening last Thursday, but the clouds came and the rain fell, vanishing present hopes.

The Republican candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney in this district will be on the go from now until nominations are made.

Mr. Tom Wilson, who was here last Friday, offered Col. Bro. $700 cash for their three-year old sorrel Stallion Red Lexington. The offer was respectfully declined.

Lost—A small white dog with black head and black spot on hip. I will pay ten dollars for his return to me, alive. L. E. SNETTER.

The Adair county Sunday-school convention will be held during May or June. Any community desiring the convention will please let us know. J. R. HINDMAN, Pres.

We, the undersigned, carry the finest lines of samples. Young men who want suits, guaranteed to fit, will please call and make their selections. RUSSELL & MURRELL. W. L. WALKER, General merchants.

Taken up as strays by Claud Hurt, to Adair county, Ky., in town of Columbia, 3 black cows, not marked except small white spot on nose of two of them. Valued by W. J. Page to $20.00. Given under my hand the 14th day of April 1903. JOHN EUBANK, J. P. A. C.

The Annual District co-operation meeting of the Christian church will convene at Egypt church, this county, on Friday before the fourth Sunday in May, at 2 o'clock p. m., and continue over Sunday. The district is composed of Adair, Cumberland, Metcalfe and Russell counties. A full program will appear in due time. Z. T. WILLIAMS.

People who believe that all deeds of benevolence are confined to times of war should read Henry Irving Dodge's story on "Heroes Who Fight Fire," in the May number of the Woman's Home Companion. It will give them greater respect for the common, everyday man. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio, one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

The match game of base ball played at Campbellville last Saturday between the second nine of Columbia and the second nine of Campbellville, resulted in a victory for the latter, the score standing 25 to 25. The boys who comprise the Columbia club report that they were most gentlemanly treated and that they very much enjoyed the game, though defeated.

Columbia, Ky., 4-27-1903.

My Dear Mrs. Bartlett: I have used a number of your different remedies and can say they are just as represented and will do what you claim. Of course we must give them time and use them as directed. I believe if any woman sufferer will do this she will be rewarded by regaining her health. I have had many personal experience with the Opaline Remedies and also what they have done for some of my friends, let them write to me and I will gladly reply.

Sincerely Yours, Mrs. J. N. Coffey.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Mrs. Kate B. Harris (nee Wilson) was born March 27, 1876, was converted and joined the Baptist Church at Campbellville when 16 years of age, under Bro. J. H. Thomas' ministry. She married Bro. Thomas Harris July 5, 1896. To this union there were born two children, a boy and girl. She suffered with patience 15 weeks before the end came, April 27, at 12:25 p. m.

I will submit some extracts from a letter written by Mrs. Jo Russell, of Mrs. Harris while she was yet living to be read in this city, she says: "It is a friend in this city, she says: 'It is a perfectly wonderful how she clings to life. She knows and talks to every one that comes in. She talks about dying, and her perfect trust in Jesus is perfectly wonderful. I never heard a meeker christian talk. Her dying testimonies are something wonderful. She says she is calmly waiting to pass beyond the river, and Jesus is waiting to receive her. She has asked that her children have religious training. She asked her father to meet her in heaven. I cannot tell you half she said to every one about heaven, and living for the glory of God. Every one that knew her loved her. I never saw such a wonderful woman—so patient and sweet, and such a self-suffering.'"

Her pastor, Bro. B. H. Demest, of 22d, Walnut street, said word to me by her husband: "Her patience, that of a christian, her death victorious and triumphant." To her husband she said: "I may get too weak to talk, if I do, and you want to know I am happy, look at me and smile, if I am I will return the smile. When he saw the end had come he looked at her and smiled, she returned it, drew one breath then passed away."

ROOSEVELT'S ROCKY ROAD.

According to The Syracuse, N. Y., Telegram, Louis P. Payson, far more than just a "Me Too" Platte, and more lately State Superintendent of Insurance under Governor Black, has been indulging in some political prophecy which, coming from a politician of long experience and intimate knowledge of inside matters of the republican party, is of considerable significance at this juncture.

Among other things Mr. Payson predicts that Mayor Low, of New York, will be re-nominated and defeated by at least 100,000, and that President Roosevelt will be re-nominated and will also lose New York state by over 100,000 votes. The Telegram adds that Payson is a shrewd and far-seeing politician and does not rashly form political judgment.

The Platt Odell feud has effectively disrupted the republican party in New York state, and there is no possible common ground upon which the warring factions can be brought together in the fall of 1904 with Roosevelt as the presidential nominee. The Platt machine regards the occupant of the white house as its enemy, and its secret enemy toward him is becoming more outspoken as the fight for supremacy between the governor and senator progresses. It is impossible for President Roosevelt to hold his political fortunes aloof from the New York quarrel, and it is difficult to see how he can essay the role of peacemaker in the interest of his political fortunes.

In addition, the glamour of San Juan bill has pretty well worn off in New York state and republican politics has readjusted itself to the old machine basis. It is unlikely that the populace will be stirred by any brass band enthusiasm from which Roosevelt as a candidate can profit next year, and with a dual machine he will surely have an uphill pull to get out of the state with a majority. Other republican politicians than Mr. Payson are coolly figuring out defeat for him. Mr. Roosevelt as a civilian and sometime mugwump is far from a popular idol of the republicans of the Empire State.

Indeed, Mr. Roosevelt is far from secure in his strength east of Alleghenies, and it is going to take more than cow-punching states to save his bacon.—Atlanta Constitution.

The State candidates are now approaching the part of the track known as the "home stretch." At it then excepting Hon. R. J. Brockbridge and Hon. John K. Hendricks for Governor, have landed into it and are coming down to the wire with whip and spur in full action. Owing to the fact that a primary is somewhat different from a convention, new tactics must be employed and it takes a little guessing to tell just what to do under the circumstances. Under the convention system, the candidate came to the county seat and picked out a few of the knowing politicians, with whom he did his conferring and upon whose efforts he based his hopes of election, knowing that it required only a man or two in the right place to carry the day. But now he must see the voter and must depend upon the decision of each individual member of the party. There is no one who more fully realizes than does the candidate that a primary gets nearer to the people and brings out an expression of preference from the people and not from the leaders. In other words, he must be the choice of the many and not of the few.—Lame Herald.

Battleships are expensive toys. The bursting of a big gun on the Iowa involved a deplorable sacrifice of life for which there is no repair. It is now declared that the cost of putting the steel monster again in fighting trim be $500,000, involving six months' stay in some ship hospital. This does not cover the whole cost. The great gun which exploded with such frightful consequences cannot be replaced without heavy additional expenditure. It cost something to try to be a world power.

The inauguration of free rural mail routes seems to have led to numerous scandals in the post-office department. Some of the officials have used their positions to give out information to buyers and sellers both informers and contractors to feather their nests in a very comfortable way.

HEADLINED.

The pastor of a Presbyterian church in San Jose, Cal., happened to fill his church on Sunday, even if he has to advertise in order to accomplish that result. Here is a notice he published last Monday: "Found asleep—so you sleep in church yesterday, did you? Well, it was rather a drowsy day, but if you had been at the Second Presbyterian church you wouldn't have been. The pastor preached two earnest, enthusiastic sermons and the music was alive and inspiring. Mrs. William Smith sang that old favorite, 'The Holy City' to the enjoyment of all, and the chorus choir rendered two anthems. The congregation was nearly as large as the church itself. An old timer there looked around and remarked to a bystander: 'Well I don't think I have ever seen anyone who came to this church, but the last few weeks I don't seem to know more than that of them.'"

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

News comes from D. H. Turner, a druggist at Dampscroft, Pa., that Dr. King's New Life Pills are the best sellers in his store. After using them himself he says, "they are truly great; actual experience convinced me. Every body wants them for constipation, stomach and liver troubles." 25c at all drug stores.

The scandals in the Post-office Department at Washington continue; in fact, multiply. A variety of schemes have been employed to defraud the Government. Officials of high and low degree are in the deal and steal. Heads of departments and clerks have profited by the opportunity. Thousands of dollars have been squandered in purchasing supplies for the post-office in various parts of the country, which were not needed and were not contemplated by law. Country postmasters were furnished with cash registers and type writers, which they did not know how to use, officials who purchased the same getting the profits with those who furnished them. Some of the defrauding officials have resigned to escape prosecution; others have been dismissed from service. The corruption in this branch of the public service especially seems to wide-spread.

A St. Louis woman, who is a member of the "amarettes," thinks that every woman should carry a revolver to protect herself "against robbers by night, and maulers in the day time," and she regards one as bad as the other. Her position is correct, as far as it goes, but why should the aiming process be confined to women? Why not? Every woman should know how to use fire arms; they should also learn to swim, and it wouldn't hurt any of them, even though blue blood courses through their veins, to learn to cook.—Georgetown Times.

A thrifty English woman, knowing the weakness of some Americans along certain lines, advertises to secure introductions at court for $5,000 per introduction. This may catch some silly old father with a silly young daughter, who has more money than brains, but give the average American $5,000 in cold cash and he wouldn't yield up 30 cents of it for an introduction to the highest court in the world.

The republican boast of ability to carry New York is the best indication of Democratic victory, since it appears to be made as a defense against Democratic confidence. The latter grows out of a careful analysis of conditions and a review of the rapidly dwindling republican pluralities of recent years. New York cannot control the Democratic party, but those electric votes count.

At a meeting of the State Medical Society held in Louisville, a general discussion followed on the subject of smallpox and the consensus of opinion was that opposition to vaccination could not be justified by facts in the experience of the Society. Compulsory vaccination was strongly advocated.

At the approaching state primary election the people and not the politicians will name the candidates. Under this condition it is difficult to see how one "states" could have an advantage over another.

Four candidates for mayor have announced in three days at Bowling Green. Better lights will be the campaign issue.

QUICK ARREST.

J. A. McCall of Verona, Ala., was taken to the hospital from a severe case of piles about 21 years ago. After doctors and all remedies failed, Buxton's Aroclor Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at all drug stores.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The time is drawing near for the Democratic Primary Election. I write this letter to encourage attention to the race for Superintendent of Public Instruction, an office for which I am a candidate. Having been superintendent of my own county, Warren, and for the past four years Chief Clerk in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and in touch with the workers for the common schools, I feel that I have had more experience and am in better position to carry out the plans set on foot by the present Democratic administration, than any of my opponents.

I am now and have always been an earnest and active worker for all bills before the State Legislature looking to a cheapening of prices on school books. If I am nominated and elected Superintendent of Public Instruction, I promise the people to do all in my power to cure the passage of a bill that will give the State uniformly and that give us the best possible books to be obtained and at the lowest possible price. I have no connection of any sort with any of the big book concerns and, if elected, I will have no favoritism to show any of them; neither will I have any prejudice against them, but will be in position, if such a bill becomes a law, as I believe it will, to secure for the pupils of the common schools the best books on the market and at the cheapest prices for such books can be attained.

I will be very grateful to you for any assistance rendered me in my race.

Yours very truly BEN WATT.

The Prohibitionists of Kentucky will meet in State Convention in Louisville to-day.

A smooth-talking agent has been selling "prepared lime" to farmers in certain sections of the country at $12 per ton. A special merit claimed for this prepared article is that it contains ten per cent of sulphate of lime. Those who bought could not have considered that they could buy high-class lime at $3.75 per ton, and that a few buckets of water would "prepare" it in good shape for their land. And they could hardly have known that sulphate of lime is hard plaster that they could lay at any home fertilizer agent for $5 to $6 per ton.

Mrs. A. T. Bartlett, of Cave Valley, Ky., has a sure home cure for all ailments peculiar to ladies. Write for sample or call and see her. A free ten day trial will be sent to all ladies who send three cents for postage. No humbug; hundreds testify. —M-31.
